CATALOGUES to be had of Mr. EDWARDS, No. 102, Pall Mall, London; of Mr. LAURENT, Rue de la Harp, Paris; and of the principal Booksellers throughout Europe.

P R E F A C E.

THE collection exhibited in this catalogue is, for its number, by far the richest and most valuable ever offered to the Public. When the difficulty of acquiring objects so much surpassing the usual style of books, is considered, it becomes a wonder how the life of one person should have been competent to such an assemblage! Of these, many are but very rarely, and after the most assiduous research, to be found; and when found, not to be obtained but at unbounded expence; whilst others among them are really unique.

Not a few of this collection may be considered as specimens of what the munificence of Sovereigns could produce, when the embellishments of literature constituted their favourite relaxations, and where artists of the greatest talents were stimulated to exert them. Such, among others, are the numbers remarked as belonging to the library of Claude d'Urfé, originally formed by the accomplished Diana of Poitiers; who availed herself of the devotion of two Kings of France, to enrich her own library with the choicest treasures of theirs.

An opportunity like this, which now offers itself to amateurs in general, as well as to Royal and public libraries, it is morally impossible should ever return. Let it be remembered, that to acquire a few only of such books as give celebrity to a library, requires a coincidence of diligence and good fortune, combined with much time and expence; and the articles here inserted, are generally of that description.

In the notices interspersed, I have confined myself to the particulars least known; premising, however, that the books which may be looked upon as shades in this catalogue, are studiously brought forward to distinguish others. It must also be observed, for the information of those who may be strangers to the unequalled care, taste, and expence with which these books were collected, that most of them were bound by De Rome, who was liberally encouraged by Mr. Paris to exert his utmost skill in adorning a library so exquisite and matchless.

CATALOGUE

LIBRARY OF Mr. P*.

DIVINITY.

- 1 BIBLIORUM sacrorum versiones quatuor, Viz.
Editio vulgata, Translatio ex hebræo S. Pagnini,
Translatio ex Septuaginta, et Chaldaicæ paraphrasis Translatio, F. Fortunati Fanensis; Venetiis, ap Ant.
Pinellum, 1609, red Morocco, with the arms of Thuanus.
- 2 Biblia sacra latina vulgatæ editionis (ex translatione et cum præfationibus S. Hieronimi;) Venetiis, N.
Jenson, 1476, 2 vol. in folio, red Morocco, with border of gold, silk ends, and cases;

PRINTED UPON VELLUM,

with painted initials and miniatures.

Of this fine edition of the Bible by Jenson, the copies on Vellum are extremely rare.—We know but of one, which is greatly inferior to this: nothing can exceed the fine preservation of it, and no expence has been spared in the binding.

- 3 La Bible qui est toute l'écriture sainte, par Calvin, chez Nicolas Barbier, 1556, in 8vo.—brown calf, ruled with red lines.
- * 3 bis. Biblia sacra vulgatæ editionis, tribus tomis distincta (jussu Sixt. V. pontificis maximi edita); Romæ, ex typographia apostolica vaticana, in fol, red Morocco, with the arms of Sixtus 5th upon the cover.

LARGE PAPER,

This celebrated and scarce edition of the Bible is called Sixtus the Fifth's, having been translated and published under the direction of that Pontiff—as soon as it appeared it made a considerable noise in the church, on account of the many alterations from the ordinary text, and was suppressed and proscribed after the death of Sixtus.

This superb copy (the only one known to us on large paper) was sold for 1210 livres (50l. 8s. 4d.) at the sale of Mr. de Limare.

- 4 Psaumes de David, mis en vers françois, Liber Proverbiorum, Parabolæ Salomonis, Verba Samuelis regis, Ecclesiastes, Canticum Canticorum & Liber Sapientiæ, in 8vo. blue Morocco—in a case,

A BEAUTIFUL MANUSCRIPT UPON VELLUM

of the 16th century, containing 158 leaves, neatly written in the Roman character, and ornamented with eight very rich miniatures, 6 inches and a half by 3 and a half, the subjects of which are,

- 1 David praying before the Ark,
- 2 Solomon dedicating the Temple,
- 3 Bathsheba supplicating David,

- 4 Abislag brought to David,
- 5 David putting the crown on Solomon's head,
- 6 Martyrdom of S. Sebastian,
- 7 Solomon's Judgment,
- 8 Solomon and the Queen of Sheba.

* 4 bis. BIBLIA PAUPERUM, a collection of designs rudely cut in wood, of the principal historical subjects in the Bible ; interspersed with sentences above, below, in the middle, or in scrolls, according to the ancient manner of describing figures speaking, small folio, blue Morocco, silk ends.

A complete and beautiful copy of the greatest typographical curiosity. It is done on 40 leaves, and is the more valuable that those leaves are not pasted double, nor the figures painted, as most of them were.

This is accounted the first essay towards the art of printing by blocks of wood, before the invention of moveable types, and is generally attributed to Laurence Coster of Haerlem, between the years 1440 and 1450.—Particular descriptions and dissertations upon this work have been given in Meermann's Origines Typographicæ, and Heineken's Idée des Estampes.

- 5 Historiarum veteris et novi testamenti figuræ 40, alias Biblia Pauperum, small folio, red Morocco.

A manuscript, copied by Leclabart, with such exactness as scarcely to be distinguished from the original.

- 6 Speculum humanæ salvationis, small folio, red Morocco.

Another manuscript by Leclabart, with 40 figures, copied with scrupulous exactness; the original is attributed to Laurence Coster, of Haerlem, executed between 1440 and 1450.

- 7 Hist. du vieux et du nouveau testament, par David Martin, avec plus de 400 figures en taille-douce, gravées par Luyken et autres; Anvers, Mortier, 1700, brown calf, gilt leaves, and first impressions of the plates before the accident broke one of them.

LARGE PAPER,

- 8 Le N. Testament de notre Seigneur Jésus-Christ; Trévoux, 1702, 4 vol. in 8vo. blue Morocco.

- 9 Concordance, qu'on appelle harmonie, composée de trois evangelistes, savoir, S. Matthieu, S. Marc et S. Luc; le tout avec les commentaires de Jehan Calvin, 1555, impri. par Conrad Badius, folio, brown calf, ruled with red lines.

- 10 Epitome passionis Jesu-Christi, in 4to. crimson velvet embroidered, in a Morocco case,

MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM,

with miniatures, containing 54 leaves, writ in Gothic characters, and 17 fine paintings of the Passion of Christ, exactly the same designs and same size as the prints of the same subject by Albert Durer—the execution is so animated, that it is very probable they have been done by the scholars of that master, if not by himself—the finishing is the highest possible, and the preservation most complete.

- 11 Hist. critique de l'ancien testament, par le P. Simon, in 4to. red Morocco.

This volume was suppressed by order of Mr. le Tellier, in consequence of an edict of the council of state, which is transcribed in the second leaf, and all the copies destroyed except six.

- 12 Hist. critique de J. C. in 8vo. brown calf.

- 13 Officium beatæ Mariæ virginis cum calendario, in 4to. red Morocco, covered with gold, in a Morocco case, with highly-finished miniatures.—This book of prayers according to the use of the Roman church, is one of the richest illuminated books which exist. Besides the great merit in the execution of the miniatures, it has that of having belonged to Francis I. king of France, and each page decorated with the device and cypher of this monarch.

This inestimable MS. contains 200 pages, writ in Roman characters, upon the finest vellum, each page enclosed in a golden cord, and the letter F. with a crown over it, interspersed throughout, painted in gold, blue, red or purple. In many pages are the arms of France, in others a salamander in the fire, with his head crowned. Francis the First is said to have taken this device to express his bravery in supporting equally his good or bad fortune; 'tis sometimes accompanied with this motto, Nutrisco et extinguo. We are at a loss how to give a satisfactory idea of the beauty and richness of the admirable paintings with which this book is ornamented.

The composition is entirely different from what we see in other books of this kind, the drawing is more correct, and the tints more varied than could be expected at that period, so that it has been supposed the book being unfinished, they may have been executed by some great artist of the last century ; they represent the following objects :

- 1 A shield surrounded with flowers, in which is painted in brilliant gold and blue letters,

OFFICIUM BEATÆ MARIÆ VIRGINIS.

- 2 The arms of a French family, in whose possession the book has been.
- 3 St. Nicholas, with the three Children, in a very rich tablet.
- 4 Annunciation of the Virgin.
- 5 Adoration of the Virgin and Joseph in the stable.
- 6 The Angel's appearing to the Shepherds.
- 7 Adoration of the Magi.
- 8 Presentation in the Temple.
- 9 Flight into Egypt.
- 10 Assumption of the Virgin.
- 11 Resurrection of Lazarus.
- 12 David in the attitude of a penitent.
- 13 The Trinity.
- 14 Francis I. in the character of St. Louis, laying his hands upon patients to cure them of the king's evil.

This book was bought from the library of the D. de la Valliere for 3000 livres (125l. sterling.)

- 14 Heures de Notre-Dame, écrites à la main, 1647, par Jarry, Parisien, in 8vo. black fish skin, with two golden clasps, in a blue Morocco case.

THIS INCOMPARABLE MANUSCRIPT

contains 120 leaves of the whitest vellum, the writing is in Roman and Italick character, of a correctness and beauty superior to the finest engraving. Many parts of the text is writ with most brilliant gold, and each page is enclosed with a neat golden cord ; it is enriched with seven superb miniatures, supposed to be painted by Petitot, 3 inches and 3-4ths by two and a half, as admirable for the perfection of their drawing, as for the richness of the colouring, the propriety of expression, and the high degree of finishing. The subjects are :

- 1 A frontispiece, which contains the title, as writ in a large book, supported by an angel on each side.—This book is placed upon a pedestal, whereon are the arms of François de Beauvilliers, for whom this master-piece was executed.
- 2 The portrait of François de Beauvilliers, a half figure, in the character of a general, and pointing with his staff to the tables of the law held by Moses—he seems to pronounce the following verses, which are writ under the painting :

Mortel, peux-tu bien te résoudre
D'enfreindre les divines loix ?
Offenser le maître des rois
C'est être digne de la foudre.

- 3 The Annunciation.
- 4 The Virgin and Infant Jesus.
- 5 David playing on the harp.
- 6 Virgin and dead Christ.
- 7 The Holy Ghost, as a dove surrounded with flames.

The volume terminates with a golden cypher, composed of the letters F. D. B. for François de Beauvilliers.—This nobleman was born in 1608, and was highly distinguished for his understanding, courage, and politeness.—Louis XIV. in recompence for his services, raised his earldom of St. Aignan to the dignity of a dutchy.—He died in 1687.

This book of prayers was carefully preserved by his children till the death of Paul Hippolitus of Beauvilliers, Duke of St. Aignan, at whose sale in 1776 it was purchased by the Duke de la Valliere.

- 15 Office de la Vierge, blue Morocco, silk ends, and Morocco cases.

MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM,

with 39 miniatures, and a great number of whimsical figures, birds, &c. uncommonly well executed. The variety and pleasantry of subjects in the miniatures place it among the most desirable specimens of this description. It belonged to the celebrated Picart, and must have been very valuable to him on account of the Costume exhibited in many of the figures.—It has been bound with great care and expence.

- 16 Officium beatæ sanctæ Virginis cum calendario, in 4to, blue Morocco.

MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM,

of the 15th century, with 15 large mniatures, the size of the page, and each leaf ornamented with a rich border of flowers, &c.

- 17 Lactantius divinarum institutionum libri vij, et Tertulliani apologia ; Venet. Aldum, 1535.
- 18 Catechismus ex decr. Concilii Tridentini ad parochos ; Ven. Aldum, 1515.
- 19 Canones et decreta sacrosancti Eucomen. et generalis Concilii Tridentini ; Romae ; 1564.
- 20 Concilium Tridentinum ; Agrippina Egmond, 1644 ; fol.
- 21 La maniere de se bien preparer à la mort, par de Chertablon ; Anvers, Gallet, 1700, in 4to. brown calf, gilt leaves.

- 22 Traité de la religion chrétienne, par Abbadie ; Rot. 1701, 2 vol. in 12mo. Traité de la divinité de J. C. Rotterdam, 1709, in 12mo, red Morocco.

BEST EDITION.

- 23 Pensées de Pascal sur la religion et quelques autres sujets ; Amst. 1688, in 12mo. green Morocco, ruled with red lines.

BEST EDITION.

- 24 La foi dévoilée par la raison dans la connoissance de Dieu, de ses mysteres et de la nature, par Parizot ; Paris, 1681, in 8vo. red Morocco.

This book was suppressed for its impiety.

LARGE PAPER.

- 37 Tolandi Pantheisticon ; Cosmop. 1720, in 8vo. red Morocco,

LARGE PAPER.

These two remarkable works are particularly described by De Bure in the Bibliographie, vol. 1. page 496, 497.

- 38 Spaccio de la Bestia trionfante, proposto da Giove, effettuato dal confeglo, revelato da Mercurio, recitato da Sofia, udito da Saulino, registrato dal Nolano, diviso in tre dialogi, subdivisi in tre parti, (opera di Giordano Bruno Nolano ;) in Parigi, 1584, in 8vo.

Most beautiful copy of a book of excessive rarity, and bound with the utmost nicety ; it has been sold so high as 44*l*.

- 39 La cena de la ceneri, descrittà in cinque dialogi et quattro interlocutori, circà doi suggetti, dal Giordano Bruno Nolano, impress. l'anno 1584, in 8vo.

As scarce as the preceding, and bound uniform to it. They are both contained in cases of yellow Morocco.

- 40 De l'infinito universo et mondi dal Giordano Bruno Nolano ; in Venetia, 1584, in 8vo.

Very scarce.

- 41 Dela causa principio et uno dal Giordano Bruno Nolano ; in Venetia, 1584, in 8vo.

Very scarce.

The four preceding works of Jordanus Brunus make up his complete system. They are all conformable to the description in the Bibliographie.

- 42 Disputa di M. Bern. Ochino da Siena intorno alla presenza del corpo di Giesu-Christo nel sacramento della Cena ; Basil. 1561, in 8vo. red Morocco.

This treatise is the most violent of Ochinus against the Catholic religion. It was sold for 30, 19 (1l. 5s. 6d. sterling) at the sale of the D. de la Valliere.

- 43 Il catechismo ovvero institutione christiana di Ochino ; Basil. 1561, in 8vo. red Morocco.

A manuscript table of contents, which never was printed, has been added to this copy.

92 M. Ruperti Besleri gazophilacium rerum naturalium è regno vegetabili, animali, et minerali, cum figuris æneis ad vivum incisis; 1642, fol. red Morocco.

There are two frontispieces to this book, one of which has been copied with the pen with great art.

93 Plantes peintes en miniature, par Aubriet; in fol. red Morocco.

This very valuable collection contains 30 paintings upon vellum from nature, and each page enclosed with a border of gold.

The works of Claude Aubriet have not only the merit of the highest degree of beauty and perfection, but they are also extremely scarce, because being miniature painter of natural history to the king of France, the greatest part of his works were done for the king, and are now deposited in his magnificent collection of drawings. This volume, as well as those numbered 110 and 116, formerly enriched the collection of the Duke de la Valliere; this was there sold for 1100 livres, and M. P. bought it at M. Limare's sale for 1200 livres (50l.)

This matchless copy came from the collection of the D. de la Valliere, at whose sale it was purchased for 451 livres, (18l. 16s.)

- 98 Flowers painted upon vellum by Rabel, in 4to. green Morocco.

This charming and inestimable collection consists of 50 flowers, each upon a separate leaf, with their names writ in letters of gold, and border of the same.

It was from admiration of the talents of this artist, that the great Colbert conceived the idea of the immense collection of drawings of natural history, which he began, and which has since been continued by the French monarchs; The delicacy of his touch, and exact fidelity to nature, have seldom been equalled.

- 99 Basillii Besleri Hortus Eistytensis, five accurata plantarum omnium ex variis orbis partibus collectarum repræsentatio; Norimbergæ, 1613, 2 vol. large folio, red Morocco.

CUTS PAINTED FROM NATURE,

upon the outlines of the plates before they were finished.

'Tis impossible to give an idea of the execution of this book without seeing it; each plate is a bold and masterly painting done with perfect exactness. No figure was painted but when opportunity offered of having the fruit and blossom in perfection, so that it was the work of many years. The celebrated artist M. Parocel has put his name to each plate. The labour and difficulty of the execution being thus explained, 'tis for connoisseurs to decide upon the merit of it.

- 103 A book of Chinese paintings, describing the culture and gathering of rice in China, fol. Chinese binding, in a case.

This collection consists of 23 designs, painted with much care in China, they give an exact picture of the manners and dress of the country. It formerly belonged to M. Mariette, who has procured two different descriptions in manuscript to each drawing.

- 104 Historia muscorum, in qua circiter sexcentæ species veteres et novæ, at sua genera relatæ describuntur, et icones genuinus illustrantur, cum appendice et indice synonymorum; operâ Jo. Jac. Dillenii; Oxonii, 1741, blue Morocco, gilt leaves.

The scarcity and merit of this work are well known, only 250 copies were printed, and the plates being now lost, cannot be re-printed. This is one of the few which were struck off on LARGE PAPER.

- 105 Chinese drawings coloured, representing various arts and occupations, but particularly all that relates to the culture of Tea, in fol. red Morocco.

This curious work contains 26 paintings on silk paper, it was purchased at the sale of the D. de la Valliere for 600. 19. (25l. sterling.)

- 106 Drawings upon vellum of butterflies, insects, and plants, folio, blue Morocco.

This charming collection consists of only 12 leaves, but painted with the most perfect beauty and nature—it was purchased at a considerable price from the cabinet of Mr. du Fay.

LARGE PAPER, and coloured by the Author.

- Ejusdem Caroli Clerck icones insectorum rariorum; Holmiae, 1759, in 4to.

At the beginning of the book is the following note:

Ce livre joint au mérite de la plus parfaite exécution celui d'une extrême rareté. M. Charles Clerck, Suédois, et membre de l'académie d'Upsal, qui en est l'auteur, s'étoit réservé le soin de peindre lui même les exemplaires qu'il vouloit répandre dans le public; mais à peine en eut-il formé le projet qu'il mourut, n'en ayant achevé que dix. Les planches qu'avoit gravé ce savant naturaliste et qui avoient guidé son pinceau, ne subsistent plus.

It was fold at Mr. de Limare's fale for 720 livres (30l.)

- 115 Delle uove e dei nidi degli uccelli del Conte Giuseppe Ginanni; in Venezia, 1737, in 4to. cuts, yellow Morocco.

- 116 Collection of birds painted by Claude Aubriet, folio, red Morocco.

This collection of the most highly finished drawings, consists of 56 leaves of vellum fixed upon paper, on which the artist has represented 92 birds painted with wonderful delicacy. It was sold at the D. de la Valliere's sale for 2400 livres, and since at Mr. de Limare's for 2500 (104l. 3s. sterling.)

LARGE PAPER, with CUTS COLOURED.

132 Hist naturelle du cabinet d'Albert Seba; 4 vols. in fol. red Morocco, inlaid with various colours.

CUTS COLOURED.

This magnificent book is one of the earliest copies of the work, and has been coloured with very particular care; the binding also has been done at a great expence; which makes it very probable to have been a present to some eminent virtuoso.

133 Catesby's natural history of Carolina, Florida, and the Bahama Islands, containing the figures of birds, beasts, fishes, serpents, &c. together with their description in English and French ; London, 1754,

2 vols. in fol. red Morocco.

Original edition, coloured by the author.

- 134 Paintings of various subjects in natural history, by Agricola, folio, red Morocco, in a case.

This collection exhibits the greatest masterpiece that was ever produced by painting in this branch of the art.
It contains 26 pictures of shells, insects, and plants, which formerly ornamented the cabinet of Mr. ****.
They were bought separately, at a great price, by Mr. P., who took them out of the frames, and had them composed into a volume.

Each piece deserves a particular description and panegyric ; but we doubt not it will sufficiently recommend itself to the eyes of connoisseurs.

FIRST EDITION, and the first book printed at Paris at a press instituted at the Sorbonne for Ulric Gering and his associates. This superb copy contains a beautiful miniature at the head of the dedication, and many pages richly ornamented—all the initials are illuminated with gold and colours. What adds to the curiosity of this volume is, the circumstance of four printed leaves containing a dedication addressed by the author to Sixtus.

IVth. Different dedications were made of this book, and on that account blanks were left in the page, and supplied by manuscript with the name and title of the personage to whom it was addressed—Ours begins thus:

Sanctissimo patri Sixto Quarto, pontifici maximo, Guillermus Fichetus, minimus theologorum parisiensium doctorum devota pedum oscula.

And ends,

Vale, spes reliqua christianitatis; ædibus Sorbonæ Pa-risii scriptum, pridie kalendas septembris anno uno et septuagesimo quadragentesimoq. supra millesimum.

This book was bought at M. de Limare's sale for 1151

Very fine copy of an edition not noticed by any bibliographer: it has no date or register; is printed in long lines, 33 in a page; the character is half Gothic, and at the bottom of the last leaf is the following colophon:

Et in hoc habetur finis præsentis tabulæ et per consequens hujus egregii operis, impressi Parisiis, in vico sancti Jacobi, in interfignum viridis follis.

- 188 Collection of Latin Classics printed by Baskerville, viz. Virgilius (original edition); Horatius, Juvenal et Persius, Lucretius, Terentius, Sallustius, Florus, Catullus, Tibullus et Propertius; 7 vol. in 4to. red Morocco.

The Virgil in this set has been enriched with the cuts of Hollar from the first edition of Ogilby, and with those of Ponce after Louthembourg, the first impressions: to the Horace has been added the cuts of Sandby's edition, and the head of Horace from Worlidge's gems.

- 189 Plauti comœdiæ; Ven., Aldum, 1522, 2 tom. green Morocco.

Very neat, and original binding.

- 190 Terentii opera; sine anno aut loco, in fol. red Morocco.

Very early edition, and the same copy which is mentioned in the Bibliographie, Vol. III. page 253. On the blank page of the first leaf is a manuscript note by Guillaume du Chastel, who writes, "that he bought this book at Paris in 1478, in the month of April," which gives ground to conjecture that the edition must have been printed some years anterior, as at that time copies had already been dispersed at Paris.

- 197 Catulli, Tibulli et Propertii opera, et liber filvarum Statii Papinii, ex recensione Guarini veronensis; Venetiis, Joannes de Colonia et Joannes Manthen de Ghersem, 1475, in 4to. red Morocco.

First Edition with initials illuminated.

As this book so rarely occurs, we give the under description for the information of the curious :

The first leaf contains a short Life of Catullus.

The second begins,

Hexicum Guarini veronensis oratoris clarissimi in libellum Valerii Catulli eius concius.

And at the end of the Works of this Poet is found,

Catulli veronensis epigrammaton libellus explicitus est.

Then follows a leaf of which one side contains the Life of Tibullus, and the next has this title, Albii Tibulli eq. Ro. poetæ Cl. liber primus, quod, spretis divitiis et militiâ, Deliam amat et amori ferviat.

This part of the volume finishes with a Poetical Epistle of Ovid upon the death of Tibullus.

The Poems of Propertius are preceded by a leaf, on one side of which is an Abstract of his Life, and end with this subscription, Propertii Aurelii naute poetæ finis, 1475.

Catulli, Tibulli, Propertii et liber filvar. Statii Papini in isto volumine continet, et impressi sunt opere et impensa Iohannis de Colonia: et Iohannis Manthem de ghersemqui una Veneciis fideliter vivunt.

Afterwards come the Silvæ of Statius which contain at the head of the first leaf in capital letters,

P. Papini Statii furculi filvarum liber primus.

And finish with

P. Papini Statii filvarum liber ultimus.

This copy was purchased at the D. de la Valliere's sale for 670 livres (27l. 18s. sterling.

- 199 Catullus, Tibullus et Propertius, cum notis, animadversionibus atque indicibus Jo. Ant. Vulpii; Patavii Comini, 1755, 8c. 6 tom. blue Morocco.

LARGEST PAPER.

This book on the largest paper is of the greatest rareness, a few copies only having been struck off for Vulpius himself.

- 200 Catullus, Tibullus, Propertius; Ven. Aldum, 1502, in 8vo. vel.
- 201 Virgilii opera; Venetiis, Aldi, 1501, in 8vo. vel.

PRINTED ON VELLUM, with Miniatures.

A splendid copy of one of the rarest books that exist; the vellum is most beautiful, the miniatures are done with great taste, and its preservation is every thing that can be desired.

- 202 Virgilii opera; Venetiis, Aldum, 1514, in 8vo.
- 203 Virgilii opera, curis et studio And. Philippe; Parisiis, Coutelier, 1745, 3 vol. red Morocco, silk ends, and ruled.

LARGE PAPER, with Cochin's cuts.

- 204 Virgilii Maronis opera a Pine; Lond. 1755, in 8vo. red Morocco, with the addition of Sandby's cuts.
This volume only contains the Bucolicks and Georgicks, as the engraver never completed this author.

- 205 Les Géorgiques de Virgile traduites en vers françois; par M. l'abbé de Lille; Paris, de l'imprimerie de F. A. Didot, 1783, in 4to. blue Morocco, silk ends.

- 206 Horatii opera; Venetiis, Aldi, 1503, in 8vo. vellum, with illuminations.

This edition is so scarce as to have escaped the observation of all Bibliographers.

- 207 Quinti Horatii Flacci opera; Londini; æneis tabulis incidit J. Pine; 1733, 2 vol. in 8vo. red Morocco, inlaid with various colours, and silk ends.

FIRST EDITION.

LARGE PAPER.

- 209 C. Valerii Flacci argonauticon; Bononiæ, per Ugonem Rugerium et dom. Bertochum regiensis, 1474, die 7 maii, in fol.

FIRST EDITION.

This beautiful copy was purchased at the Duke de la Valliere's sale for 719 livres (29l. 19s. sterling.)

- 210 Ovidii opera; Venetiis, Aldi, 1502, 1503, 3 tom. in 8vo.

PRINTED ON VELLUM, with illuminations.

Perhaps the only copy that exists upon vellum, the perfection of the margins, and complete preservation of all the volumes, render it inestimable.

211 Marci Manlii poetæ clarissimi astronomicon ;
Bononiæ impressum per me Ugonem Rugerium et dominum Bertochum, anno Domini 1474, die vigesima martii. Laus Deo. Amen, small fol. red Morocco.

This book is so scarce that many have denied its existence; Harwood's catalogue, even in the Italian edition with the additions of Pinelli, says nothing of it, the author of the Bibliography regrets not being able to decide with certainty upon its existence, and says that it must remain in doubt till time or chance shall have brought to light some copy which will clear up the difficulties that hinder him from describing it.

This copy being in the greatest perfection, enables us to give the following detail of it :

The whole work contains 88 leaves, of which the first is blank—the second begins with the above title in capital letters, followed by 31 lines of the text in a small round character much resembling the edition of Juvenal and Persius at Brixia, 1473, but neater and less.—Each entire page contains 35 lines.—There is no register, but the volume ought to contain 11 gatherings, of which

The first has 10 leaves, including the first blank.

The second and third each 8.

The fourth 4, but the 3d leaf is only printed on one side and the next blank.

The fifth 10, beginning with the 3d book of Manlius.

The sixth 8.

The seventh 10.

The eighth 8, the 6 first of these leaves finish the poem, the 7th begins with an Eulogy of Manlius, followed by a table of chapters contained in the 5 books, the 8th leaf begins, Arattus Germanici ad Augustum, and the rest of the page is a Table of Figures meant to be drawn in the blank spaces under the letter-press of the rest of the work.

The ninth contains 8 leaves.

The tenth 8.

The eleventh 6, concluding with FINIS.

BONONIÆ IMPRESSUM PER ME UGONEM RUGERIUM ET DOMINUM BERTOCHUM ANNO DOMINI MCCCCLXXIV, DIE VIGESIMA MARTII. LAUS DEO. AMEN.

LARGE PAPER.

- 218 Martialis opera, sine anno, loco, aut ulla nota, (circa 1470), in 4to. blue Morocco.

Most beautiful copy.

This edition in neat round letters is so scarce as to have remained undiscovered by the greatest Bibliographers; the volume begins with a register of the different gatherings, and each entire page contains 32 lines, at the bottom of the last page is the word FINIS.

- 219 Martialis Epigrammata; Venetiis, Aldi, 1500, in 8vo. vel.
- 220 Statii opera; Ven. Aldi, 1502, in 8vo. vel.
- 221 C. Calphurnii eglogæ XI, C. Siliî Italici punnicorum libri XVII; Romæ, Sweynheym et Pannartz, in domo P. de Maximo, 1471, in fol. red Morocco.

FIRST EDITION.

A most beautiful copy, which was purchased at the Duke de la Valliere's sale for 1160 livres (48l. 6s. sterling.)

- 222 Aufonii peonii epigrammatum liber; versus paschales; epistolæ, &c. Probæ Falconiæ vatis de fidei nostræ mysteriis ex Virgilio centones. Titi Calphurnii eglogæ XI. ; Venetiis, anno 1472, small folio, red Morocco.

FIRST EDITION.

The preliminary pieces at the beginning of the volume contain six leaves, the first of which is an advertisement to the reader, printed in capital letters, as follows :

Ad Lectorem.

O

Musarum cultor quisquis es, Aufonii pœonii epigrammatum libellum intuens : quanta fuerimus sedulitate usi in his quæ tum ad græcarum tum ad latinar. litterarum eruditionem sceleritiamque pertinent. Venetiis.

The five other leaves of a Table of Contents begin thus :

Diligentis et accuratissimi impressoris manu poemata hæc in parvo hoc opere continentur.

Aufonii peonii poetæ lepidis, atque festivi epigrammaton dimidiatus liber, &c.—versus paschales,—epistolarum, liber I.—Aufonii burdigalis vassatis.

Medici poetæ ac præceptoris gratiarum actio ad Gratianum imperatorem pro consulatu, —versus monosyllabis—.

Titulus Pub. Gregorii Tiferni epistolarum epigrammatumque pars—finit. tabula eorum qui in hoc volumine continentur.

The first page of the text is printed in capitals, and begins with these words :

Aufonii peonii poetæ disertissimi.
epigrammaton liber primus.

The different works of Aufonius occupy 46 leaves, and on the back of the last of them is this subscription in capital letters :

Expliciunt ea Aufonii fragmenta quæ invidia cuncta corrodens vetustas ad manus nostras venire permisit,

T E Λ O Σ.

Below are four verses, beginning αυσονίος fuerum solus, &c.

Then are two blank leaves, and a third with this title,
Probæ centonæ clariss. feminæ excerptum e Maronis carminibus ad testimonium veteris novique testamenti opusculum.

These centonæ employ eleven leaves, and conclude with

T E A O Σ.

Probæ centonæ clariss. feminæ opusculum ; feliciter explicit.

The volume finishes with sixteen leaves, the first beginning

Titi Calphurnii ficuli bucolicum carmen ; Ornitus & Corydon fratres interlocutores, ægloga prima.

And at the bottom of the first page of the sixteenth leaf, this subscription is printed in capital letters,

Titi Calphurnii ficuli bucolicum carmen,

Finit.

An. incar. dominicæ M. CCCC. LXXII.

This volume does not contain the two following treatises, which, by the table, seems to have been intended.

Pub. Ovidii epistola de morte Drusi & P. Gregorii Tiferni epigrammata.

Mattaire interprets the two letters B. G. Barth. Girardinus.

- 235 Le livre qui est nommé Leffant en parabolle, in fol.
purple velvet.

MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM,

of the 15th century. It is a Morality in verse, which, under the figure of a dream, discourses of the fragility and inconstancy of life, and of the joys of Paradise. It finishes with this subscription :

L'an mil de grace quatre cents
Cinquante-ung du pourc fens
De l'auteur, ce livre accomplis

The lines to which these verses refer for the name of the author, are

Bien fuz nome Chasteau tournant,
Ung Francois et ung bretonnant.

We observe, by the arms, that this MS. has been done for some of the house of Medicis, but it afterwards fell into the library of Claude d'Urfé.

- 240 Les faicts, dictes et ballades de maître Alain Chartier ; Paris, Pierre le Caron, in folio, without date, bound in green velvet,

FIRST EDITION, PRINTED ON VELLUM.

This book is in every respect as complete as can be desired, the grandeur of the margins, the painting of the miniatures and of all the capital letters, the patience and exactness with which each line of print is separated by nice ruling ; all shew how much it was meant to be the distinguished ornament to some library. It belonged to Claude d'Urfé, and is in its original binding.

This edition is supposed to have been printed about the year 1484.

- 241 L'aurloge de sapience ; in fol. purple velvet.

- 328 Opere di Francesco Petrarca; senza luoghi
1514, blue Morocco, silk ends, in a Morocco case.

PRINTED ON VELLUM.

A book of matchless beauty from the charming miniatures painted by Julio Clovio. Six of these are the triumphs of Love, Chastity, Death, Fame, Time, and the Deity, 5 inches by 3, and are in the finest stile possible: they have all the grandeur and spirit of his master, Julio Romano, with the minute delicacy and finishing of Clovio. Two others of the same size serve as frontispieces. There are 174 of most exquisite miniatures of birds, beasts, fishes, monsters, fabulous histories, and various compositions of the greatest ingenuity, in the borders of the pages, with a small gold line from each subject directed to the verse to which it alludes.

Mr. P* had the good fortune to procure it at Florence, where it was universally reputed to have been executed for a Princess of the House of Medicis; and it is so correct that he has never been able to find a single fault in the printing.

The fine preservation of this book and paintings shews what a gem it has been considered by its possessors.

Italian Novels and Tales.

- 406 Boccacio il Decamerone, senz' alcuna nota di luogho d'anno e di stampatore (1470,) in fol. blue Morocco.

FIRST EDITION.

A book of the greatest rarity, and exactly conformable to Haym's description, page 341; the lines of poetry at the end of each day are here printed as prose; it begins thus:

Quivi icomicia la prea giornata del Decamerone, nela qle la demonstratione facta del auctore Pehe cagione adveisse didoverfi quelle pfone che appresso si dimostrano raguante ad ragionare insieme: sotto il regimeto di papinea si ragiona di quella materia che pice agradiscie ad ciascuno.

and ends with three lines and a half upon the last page, in these words of the conclusion of the 10th novel of the last day, se retornarono alle lor case.

The last leaf having been repaired, has not the two last words, Deo gratias, mentioned by Haym, the type is exactly like that of Mercurius Trismegistus, Tarvisii, 1471.

- 407 Il Decamerone di messer Giov. Boccacio; in Venetia, Aldo et Asulano, l'anno 1522, in 8vo. blue Morocco.

1574, in 8vo. vel.

These are 11 novels much esteemed by the curious.

- 425 Il novellino di Masfuzo ; Napoli, 1476, in fol. blue Morocco, silk ends.

FIRST EDITION.

This is perhaps the scarcest first edition of an Italian author after the Decameron of Boccace, and is in the finest preservation. It finishes thus :

Qui finisce il novellino con le 50 argomenti et morali conclusioni d' alcuni exempli per Masfuzo, guardato nobele Salernitano, facto et intitolato alla illust. Ippolito di Calabria Duchessa, A. D. 1476, in civitate Neapolis, sub aureo seculo et augustâ pace Fernandi regis patriæ, amen.

- 426 Il novellino di Masuccio Salernitano ; Venetiis ; per Johannem et Gregorio de Gregorii, 1492, in fol. cuts, green Morocco.

This edition is not cited by Haym, or any other bibliographer.

445 Inveſtiva coetus fœminei contra mares, edita per magiſtrum Johannem Motis, neapoletanum.—Remedium contra concubinas et conjuges per modum abbreviationis libri Matheoli à Petro de Corbolio, archidiacono ſenonenſi et ejus fociis compilatum.—De arte rigmatizandi, in 4to. Gothic character, blue Morocco.

The firſt Treatiſe finiſhes thus :

Quatuor ſunt quæ mulieres ſumme cupiunt :
 A formoſis amari juvenibus,
 Pollere filiis pluribus,
 Ornari pretioſis veſtibus,
 Et dominari præ cæteris in dominibus.

At the end of the ſecond, is Quinque ſunt quæ perturbant rempublicam, ſive bonum commune :

Falſus judex in conſiſtorio,
 Falſus mercator in foro,
 Sacerdos avarus in templo,
 Pulchra merétriſ in proſtibulo,
 In aulis dominorum adulator.

L'abrégé de l'ouvrage de Matheolus eſt une ſatyre très violente, et on ne peut pas plus obſcene contre les femmes ; on en peut juger par le paſſage ſuivant :

Omnem recipiet femina maſculum,
 Omnemque ſubdita vincet teſticulum.
 Quis poteſt conjugis implere vaſculum,
 Nam una mulier fatigat populum ?

The three ſucceeding ſtanzas are equally ſtrong.

446 Devoirs des filles et chaſtes amours, exprimés par emblêmes ; cuts, oblong, in 12mo.

- 447 Guill. de Marca de tribus fugiendis, ventre, pluma, et Venere libelli tres ; Parisiis, 1521, in 4to. red Morocco.

Beautiful copy of a very scarce book ; one which wanted the frontispiece, at the D. la Valliere's, sold for 48 livres (2l. 2s.)

- 448 Joannis Meibomius de flagrorum usu in re venerea ; Londini, 1665, in 32.

- 449 Les songes drolatiques de Pentagruel, où sont contenues plusieurs fig. de l'invention de M^e Fr. Rabelais, et dernière œuvre d'icelui pour la récréation des bones esprits, contenant 120 figures gravées en bois ; Paris, 1565, in 8vo. red Morocco.

- 486 Collectiones peregrinationum in Indiam orientalem et in Indiam occidentalem, XXV partibus comprehensæ, cum titulo, præfatione et elencho capitum ultimæ editionis, anni 1634; appendice regni Congo, ex altera editione navigationum in Indiam occidentalem, cum fig. æneis fratrum de Bry et Meriani; Francofurti ad Mœnum, typis Jo. Wecheli, sumptibus vero Theodori de Bry, anno 1590 et sequentibus, 60 vol. bound in 24 in yellow, blue, and red Morocco.

We have no scruple to pronounce this the most complete and most beautiful copy that exists—to make it as perfect as possible, has been the amusement of three of the greatest amateurs of France. This is the copy indicated by the Bibliographie, page 71, as being even at that time the most complete and best disposed that was known. It was first begun to be formed by the Abbé Rotelin, who then composed upon it a treatise to determine with certainty the perfection of this important work: at his death it was sold to M. Paris de Meyzieu, who, during twenty years, got every thing he could find out to add to its perfection; but it was reserved to M. P*, the third proprietor, to complete its distinction, above all others, at the expence of sacrificing to it another superb copy, on account of some variations which had not been discovered before.—In the description we shall omit what is remarked in the Bibliographie—since the fact being known that that description was compiled from this copy in a state far less perfect than it is at present, every thing there noticed must be in it: the following detail is, therefore, to be considered as supplemental to it:

Description of the Peculiarities in the different Parts of this Copy of the West-India Voyages, called in France GRANDS VOYAGES.

A preface and summary of the thirteen parts, with directions for reading them in chronological order; with a title and frontispiece as follows:

Historiæ Americæ, five novi orbis, comprehendens in 13 sectionibus exactissimam descriptionem vetustissimarum et multis abhinc sæculis incognitarum terrarum, quæ nunc passim Indiæ occidentalis nomine usurpantur, &c., Francofurti; sumptibus Matt. Meriani, 1634.

This is accompanied with a large map, entitled America noviter delineata.

Having been but once printed, this part is very uncommon.

FIRST EDITION.

Part 1. Admiranda narratio, fida tamen, de commodis et incolarum ritibus Virginix, &c.; Francofurti ad Mænum; typis Jo. Wechelli, &c. 1590.

This part contains ten of the prints duplicates on account of variations in the printed descriptions under them.

2. Brevis narratio eorum quæ in Florida, Americæ provincia Gallis acciderunt; Francofurti, &c. 1591.

The print above the advertisement to the reader, representing Noah coming out of the ark, is double; and after the 42 prints is a leaf with a vignette, above which is,

Francofurti ad Mænum, apud Johannem Wechelium, impensis Theodori de Bry.

And under it, M.D.LXXXXI.

Part 3. Americæ tertia pars memorabilem provinciæ Brazilæ historiam continens, &c., 1592. Venales reperiuntur in officina fig. Fierabendii.

The leaf of armorial bearings at the beginning of this part is not accompanied by the attributes of different virtues.

4. Americæ pars quarta, five insignis et admiranda historia de reperta primum occidentali India à Christophoro Columbo, anno 1492, &c. Frankofurti, 1594.

The engraved title of this part, also that which precedes the prints, and the plates 1, 2, 8, 9, 10, 11, 13, 14, 21, 24, are double.

5. Americæ pars quinta, &c. 1595.

Contains 1, 2, 3, 6, 8, 10, 12, 16, 19, 21, double.

5. Americæ pars quinta, &c. 1595.

This part is entirely repeated with some variations of the first and second editions.

6. Americæ pars sexta, 1596.

The title is double, with a variation as well as the following plates: 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 9, 10, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28.

7. Americæ pars septima, 1599.

8. Americæ pars octava, 1599, has plates 16, 17, 18, double.

9. Americæ nona et postrema pars, 1602, has eight duplicate plates, 8, 9, 13, 15, 17, 18, 19, 20.

Relatio historica, &c. 1602.

Additamentum nonæ partis Americæ, 1602.

10. Americæ pars decima, 1619.

11. Americæ pars undecima, 1619.

America tomi undecimi appendix, 1620, with the print of Magellan repeated.

It ought to be remarked, that the cypher of the 20th plate is here marked 17 by mistake.

12. Novi orbis pars duodecima, 1624.

In this part, all the geographical charts are properly placed.

13. Decima tertia pars hiftoriæ Americanæ, 1634.

Second and Third Editions of the West-India Voyages.

1. Admiranda narratio, &c. (1590)

2. Hiftoriæ Americanæ fecunda pars, 1591.

3. Hiftoriæ antipodum, five novi orbis pars tertia, 1633.

4. Americæ pars quarta, 1594.

5. Americæ pars quinta, 1595.

6. Americæ pars sexta, 1596.

7. Americæ pars feptima, 1625.

8. Americæ pars oclava, 1625.

9. Hiftoriæ antipodum, five novæ orbis pars nona, 1633.

10. Americæ pars decima, 1619.

The title of this part is repeated with different vignettes.

11. Americæ pars undecima, 1619.

Americæ tomi undecimi appendix, 1620.

12. Novi orbis pars duodecima, 1624.

The plates in pages 86, 88, 96, 105, 108, 110, 111, 113, 116, 119, 132, 135, 136, 143, are double, to shew that they are only prints of the preceding parts here used.

13. Decima tertia pars historiæ Americanæ, 1634.

The figures at pages 127 and 137 are double.

Voyages to the East Indies, known in France by the name of Petits Voyages.

1. Regnum Congo ; Francofurti, 1598.

Appendix regni Congo ; Francofurti, 1625.

The figures at pages 4, 7, 17, 38, 43, 49, 45, 51, 56, 61, 71, are double, with descriptions.

This appendix is very rare ; nevertheless, more than one edition of it has been printed, as we have it, besides the five first parts, in an edition with the German text.

2. Secunda pars Indiæ orientalis ; Francofurti, 1599.

3. Tertia pars Indiæ orientalis ; Francofurti, 1601.

The 18th plate is here double, with a variation.

4. Pars quarta Indiæ occidentalis ; Francofurti, 1601.

The first plate is double, with variations.

5. Quinta pars Indiæ orientalis. 1601.

6. Indiæ orientalis pars sexta, 1604.

7. Indiæ orientalis pars 7, 1606.

8. Indiæ orientalis pars 8, 1607.

Figures 3 and 5 are double.

Supplementum nonæ partis Indiæ, 1613.

Colliquo latino malaica.

Icones seu imagines de gestis ab Hollandis, 1613.

The plates 2, 3, 5, are double and different.

10. Indiæ orientalis pars decima, 1613.
 11. Indiæ orientalis pars undecima, 1619.

The plates 7, 10, are double.

12. Historia orientalis Indiæ, tomus XII. 1628.

The plates at page 9, 94, 95, 97, 135, 147, 152, 160, 163, are double.

Véridique description du royaume de Congo en Afrique, mise d'abord en langue Portugaise, par Edouard Lopez, et ensuite traduite en allemand, par Augustin Cassiodore; à laquelle on a joint la représentation fidele des objets, &c. Francfort sur le Mein, 1609, in fol.

This volume contains the five first parts, and the appendix to the Voyage to Congo, very complete; but there are some variations in the plates.

The ten volumes next described, do not belong to this collection of voyages; but as they are partly printed in the work, and there are cuts which De Bry has not given in his collection, it has been thought necessary to add them.

Navigatio ac itinerarium Johannis Hugonis Linschotani in orientalem, five Lusitanorum Indiam, &c. Hagæ Comit. 1599. .

This is the first Latin edition, and is reprinted in the second part of the East-India Voyages.

- 497 Chronique de Jehan de Courcy, qui est aussi nommé la Boucachardine ; 2 vol. large folio, green velvet.

MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM.

This beautiful book was executed about the middle of the 15th century, and contains 378 leaves : it is ornamented with very rich borders, with arabesque ornaments, and six grand miniatures about $7\frac{1}{2}$ inches by 6 : in one is a curious view of Babylon, built according to the stile of the 15th century, and the Tower of Babel half finished, with the Angel confounding their language : Nimrod is represented as a monstrous giant armed cap-à-pie, and holding a halbert in his right hand.

In the beginning of this MS. we have a preface, where the author tells us he was named “ Jehan de Courcy, “ a Norman knight ; that in the year 1416, finding “ himself grow old, and no more fit for fields of battle, being favoured with the goods of fortune, and “ seeking repose, to avoid idleness he was going to “ employ himself in writing ancient histories, and particularly those of Greece.” He says, that “ he “ will often bring in private histories, and conclude “ with moral and pious reflections.”

This John of Courcy was of one of the most ancient families of Normandy, and the name Boucachardine is formed from Achard, the name of a village in the Signory of Rouen, which belonged to the Lords of Courcy.

This copy came from the library of Claude d'Urfé.

MANUSCRIPT ON PAPER, with miniatures.

This work has been composed and dedicated to Charles IX. King of France, and contains many minute circumstances and manners of the age—it belonged to the family of Harcourt, as well as the following article.

- 571 Recueil des principaux seigneurs qui passerent le mer avec Guillaume conquereur d'Angleterre, et de plusieurs autres, qui, après le décès dudit Guillaume, se retirèrent en Angleterre; et quels honneurs et états ils ont eu en la cour des rois jusqu'à présent, ensemble leurs faits, alliance, généalogies, mariages, &c. dédié au roi par L. Bernard, 1568, folio.

Original manuscript, of considerable importance, and never printed; it makes a very interesting part of the English history, and having been composed by the Royal Historiographer to Charles the IXth, may be accounted of the best authority for the curious incidents he relates.

- 572 Procession and ceremonies observed at the installation of the Knights of the Bath, by J. Pine, english and french; London, 1730, in fol. red Morocco.

LARGE PAPER.

- 573 Expōitio fidelis de morte Thomæ Mori et aliorum insignium virorum in Anglia; Antwerp. 1536, in 8vo. green Morocco.

LARGE PAPER.

- 593 Choix de pierres antiques gravées, du cabinet du duc de Marlborough; in fol. red Morocco.

An elegant copy of a work never fold, it having been executed at the expence of the noble proprietor of these gems, who only printed a few copies to gratify his friends.

This volume contains 50 plates, besides the frontispiece and vignettes, all most beautifully engraved by Bartolozzi.

- 594 Worlidge's antique gems in the possession of the nobility and gentry of Great Britain, on 180 plates, 3 vol. 4to. blue Morocco.

LARGE PAPER.

A master piece of fine engraving which rather appears like the most correct and finished Indian-ink drawings.—The artist, (a celebrated painter), spent the best part of his life in engraving this admirable collection, in a stile at the same time so delicate and so relieved as has never been equalled.—To this most beautiful copy have been added Worlidge's portrait, his large Medusa, and Hercules, of which very few impressions were taken.

- 594 * bis Veneres uti observantur in gemmis antiquis; Lug. Bat. 2 vol. in 8vo. green Morocco.

CUTS COLOURED.

- 595 Dichiarazioni della pianta dell' antiche Siracuse e d'alcune scelte medaglie d'esse, e de principi che quelle possedettero, descritte da Vincenzo Mirabella; in Nap. per Lazzaro Scorriglio, 1613, in fol. cuts, yellow Morocco.
